CONSENT TO SEARCH

I HAVE BEEN ASKED TO PERMIT THE SPECIAL AGENTS OF THE ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION AGENCY AND THEIR REPRESENTATIVES IDENTIFIED BELOW TO SEARCH ON MAY 22, 2018 BETWEEN THE HOURS OF 8:30 AM AND 5:00 PM THE FOLLOWING:

The former Recycletronics facility located at 1220 Steuben Street in Sioux City, Iowa, as shown on the map below. The facility consists of a large, steel-frame building with white metal siding, with a concrete and/or gravel lot and grass surrounding the building. The facility is accessed via Steuben Street and was operated by Aaron Rochester and associated businesses as a recycling facility. Entrance doors are on the west side, and garage doors are on the north and south sides. A red, white, and blue sign above the entrance doors identifies 'Recycletronics'.

For inspection and photographic purposes, access to all boxes, totes, containers, and areas of recycling associated with operations at the Recycletronics facility is requested.
